Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to

1. Learn to write thesis driven essays, with clear internal organization governed by a series of controlled paragraph topic sentences;
2. Learn to move logically in a body paragraph from the generalization of the topic sentence to more specific clarifications;
3. Learn to understand and appropriately apply modes of expression in written communication;
4. Learn to maintain a logical movement through an essay with control of transitions, clarifications, and reasonable conclusions to ideas;
5. Learn to analyze an audience to determine the best strategies for effectively communicating with that audience;
6. Demonstrate an understanding of some basic research techniques and how to use library resources;
7. Demonstrate knowledge of research documentation including quotation integration, proper citation, and some knowledge of bibliographic form;
8. Demonstrate competence in using conventional English;
9. Articulate ideas in well-organized, lucid prose that exhibits the application of the aforementioned skills.

Tasks: Readings, Activities, Assignments, and Assessments

Your grade for this course is based on the number of points you earn doing module tasks/assignments: comments, discussions, content assignments, interactive review activities, and assessments (quizzes, tests, and Final Exam). Tasks/assignments are assigned a certain number of points.

You may work at your own pace to complete and submit each assignment, including discussions, quizzes, tests, and exams. Each assignment has an On-Pace Due Date and a Last Due Date.

On-Pace Due Date

The On-Pace Due Date is the best time to submit your assignments following this timeline will help you keep up with the coursework. It is strongly recommended that you submit your assignment on or before this date. However, since you are working at your own pace, you can submit any assignment after the recommended due date.

If you follow the on-pace due dates, you will complete the course in four weeks.

Last Due Date

The Last Due Date gives you four extra weeks to complete all of the assignments in the course. This is the last possible date you can submit any work. Task/assignments will not be accepted or graded after the Last Due Date.

Below is a list of reoccurring tasks that appear in each module in the course. Following the list is a description each type of task. Please read the descriptions carefully.

Student Engagement

Students who are actively engaged in their online course are more likely to be successful than those who are not. OC Global students are expected to remain engaged in the course by:

1. Participating in all required discussions and activities,
2. Interacting regularly with the instructor and other course participants.

To stay engaged, students are encouraged to check The Yard daily to learn of updated announcements, assignments, and discussion posts and to communicate with members of the class. By "talking" on The Yard and responding to others comments and questions, you contribute to the learning and understanding that goes on in the class. Although there is no set number of required interactions, students who wish to qualify for the OC Global Guarantee must demonstrate a good faith effort to be engaged in the class by logging into the course at least four times a week, communicates with the instructor at least twice a weeks, and attempts to complete all or most of the course assignments.
