(SCANS 2,5,6,7,8,10,11)

Course Objectives

After completion of this course, the student should be able to demonstrate competencies in:

1. The knowledge of the rules and etiquette of equine sports and recreational activities.
2. The basic skills of equine sports and recreation.

3. The appropriate attire and equipment for the various equine sports and activities.

CLASS ACTIVITIES: There will be horseback lectures in the arena at Graham Center and field trips to various facilities to meet with professionals in specific events, games and activities on horseback. These field trips will require the student to furnish transportation for themselves and their horse to and from the various destinations. Handouts and related materials of the rules and basic skills and equipment required for each activity will be kept in a notebook for later reference and a major grade at the final exam.
